Creative currencies of countries

CHAPTER 1

AUSTRALIA

Australia’s currency is waterproof and difficult to tear.

New Zealand

New Zealand's currency is known for its intricate portraits.
The word intricate means complex and elaborate.

CHINA

China was facing a problem with counterfeit, or fake, currency. In 2015, they released the new 100-yuan note which was designed to fight counterfeit currency.

Its colour-changing ink turns from pink to green, depending on the viewing angle of the note!

Even the 100 in the centre turns from gold to green.

Canada

In 2018, Canada released vertically oriented notes! Very few countries use vertical notes, such as Switzerland.

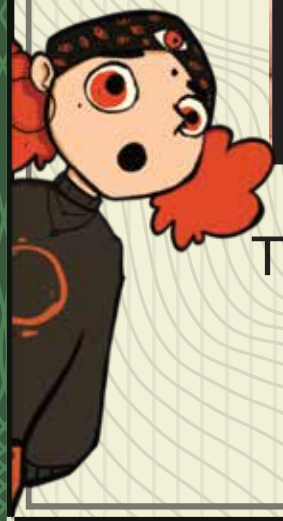
INDIA

The Indian currency is called the Rupee, and its symbol is ₹. It is issued by the Reserve Bank of India.

INDIA

The first paper currency in India was introduced in 1861 during British rule. It was a ₹10 note!

INDIA



The images on Indian notes show important monuments like the Red Fort, the Konark Temple, the Kailash Temple, the Hampi Stone Chariot, and more.
