HOUSES AROUND US

CHAPTER 8

Take a look at villages, towns, and cities in Tamil Nadu

VILLAGES

PUBLIC AMENITIES

SCHOOLS IN VILLAGES

In some villages, students might study under trees or in open spaces if there aren't enough classrooms. This makes learning close to nature!

PUBLIC AMENITIES

ROADS IN VILLAGES

Many village roads are not smooth like cities. So, they can be dusty in summer and muddy during the rainy season.

PUBLIC AMENITIES

PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN VILLAGES

Villages often have very little public transport. For example, a few buses or shared jeeps. People mostly walk, cycle, or use bullock carts to travel.

HOUSES

HOUSES IN VILLAGES

Many village houses have big courtyards where families gather, cook, and even keep animals like cows or goats.

TOWNS

SCHOOLS IN TOWNS

Schools in towns often have basic facilities like classrooms, blackboards, and sometimes a playground. But they may not have as many modern amenities as city schools.

PUBLIC AMENITIES

ROADS IN TOWNS

Town roads usually have less traffic compared to big cities. So, they can be calmer and quieter, with fewer cars on the road.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN TOWNS

In some towns, people often share auto-rickshaws or mini-buses to save money. So, they may have to wait until the vehicle is full.

HOUSES

HOUSES IN TOWNS

Town houses often have more open space compared to city homes, like small gardens or courtyards.

CITIES

SCHOOL IN CITIES

City schools often have modern facilities like smart classrooms, computer labs, and sports grounds. They have a lot of students. So, classrooms can be more crowded than the schools in villages.

ROADS IN CITIES

City roads are usually wide and full of vehicles like cars, buses, and bikes.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN CITIES

Cities have many public transport options like buses, metro trains, auto-rickshaws, and taxis. This makes it easier to travel.

HOUSES IN CITIES

In cities, many people live in tall apartment buildings or skyscrapers. There isn’t enough space for everyone to have a house with a garden.
