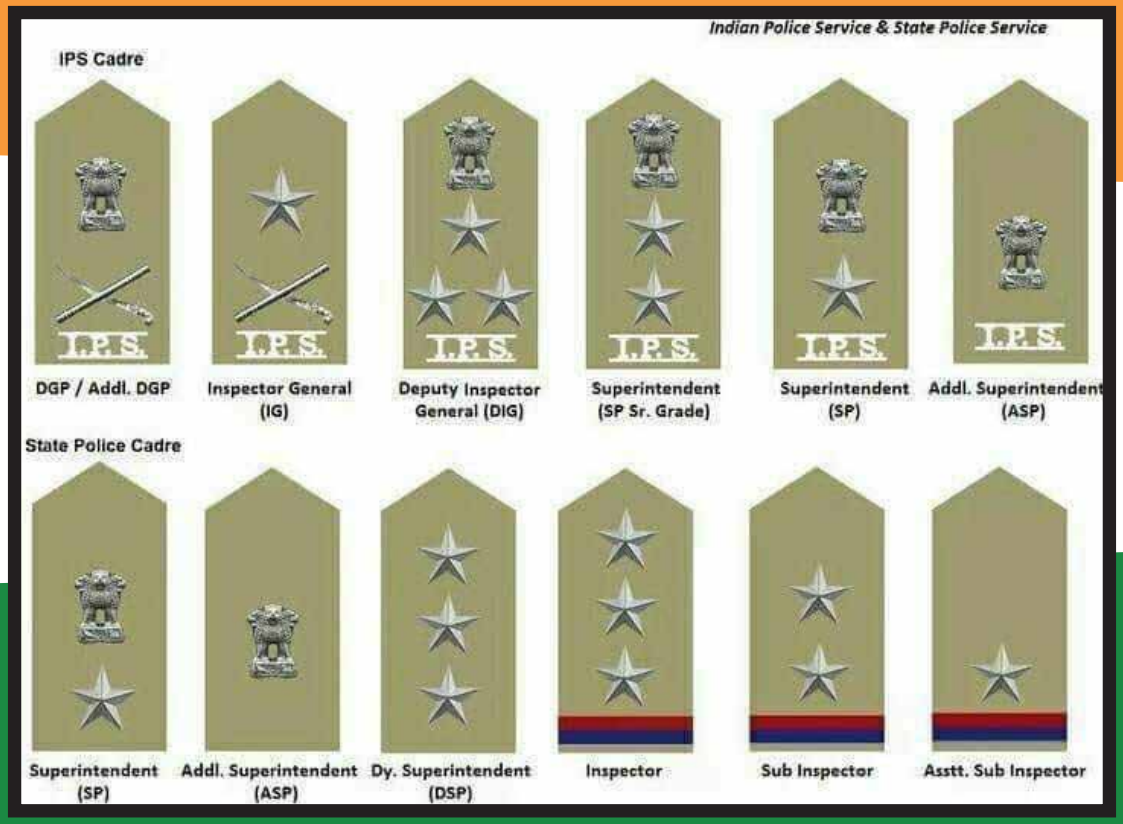
MYSTICLAND
IN SCHOOL

INDIAN POLICE UNIVERSE

CHAPTER 10

Fun Fact: The word police comes from a Greek word. It means "city".

THE INDIAN POLICE'S UNIFORM



Badges: They wear shiny badges on their shirts with special symbols to show their rank.

THE INDIAN POLICE'S UNIFORM

Caps:
Caps show the different departments of the Indian Police.

IPS: Indian Police Service

THE INDIAN POLICE'S UNIFORM

Caps:
Caps show the different departments of the Indian Police.

CRP: Central Reserve Police

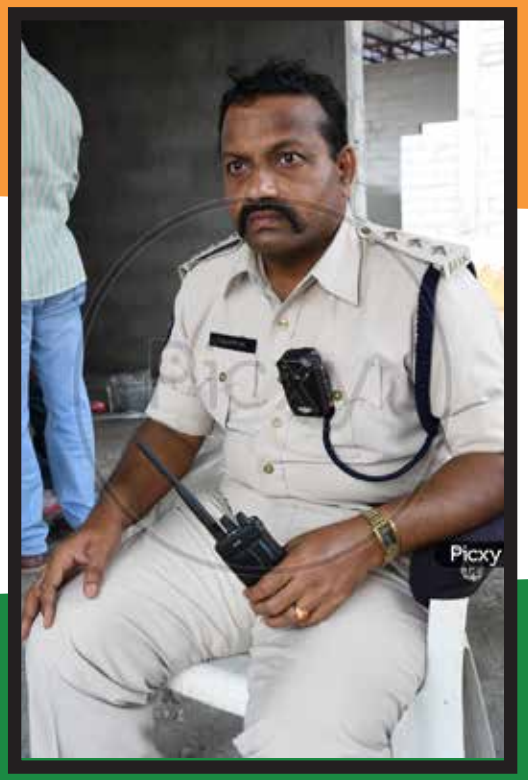
TOOLS CARRIED BY INDIAN POLICE

Whistle: To stop vehicles or call attention.

TOOLS CARRIED BY INDIAN POLICE

Lathi (Stick): A wooden baton used for controlling crowds.

TOOLS CARRIED BY INDIAN POLICE



Walkie–Talkie: A small device to talk to other officers.

TOOLS CARRIED BY INDIAN POLICE

Handcuffs: To stop bad people from escaping.

TOOLS CARRIED BY INDIAN POLICE

Guns: Used only in emergencies to protect people.

POLICE VEHICLES

Patrol Cars: Special cars with red or blue flashing lights to quickly reach emergencies.

POLICE VEHICLES

Motorcycles: Used for fast movement in traffic.

POLICE VEHICLES

Jeeps: Often used in villages and rough areas.

UNIQUE FACTS ABOUT THE INDIAN POLICE

Camel Police Unit, Rajasthan: Rajasthan's police force uses camels for patrolling deserts, especially near the India-Pakistan border.

UNIQUE FACTS ABOUT THE INDIAN POLICE

On 21 October, India celebrates Police Commemoration Day. It is a day to remember the officers who died fighting Chinese troops in Ladakh on 21 October 1959.