HOW FAMILIES STAY CONNECTED

CHAPTER 4

MYSTICLAND
IN SCHOOL

CELEBRATING SPECIAL DAYS TOGETHER EVEN FROM AFAR

Video Calls During Festivals:

Families connect through video calls to celebrate together, even if they are in different countries.

CELEBRATING SPECIAL DAYS TOGETHER EVEN FROM AFAR

Sending Gifts:

Families send gifts or cards to loved ones during special days like birthdays, anniversaries, or festivals.

STAYING CONNECTED THROUGH FOOD

Virtual Dinners:

Some families organise virtual dinners where everyone eats together on a video call, chatting and laughing.

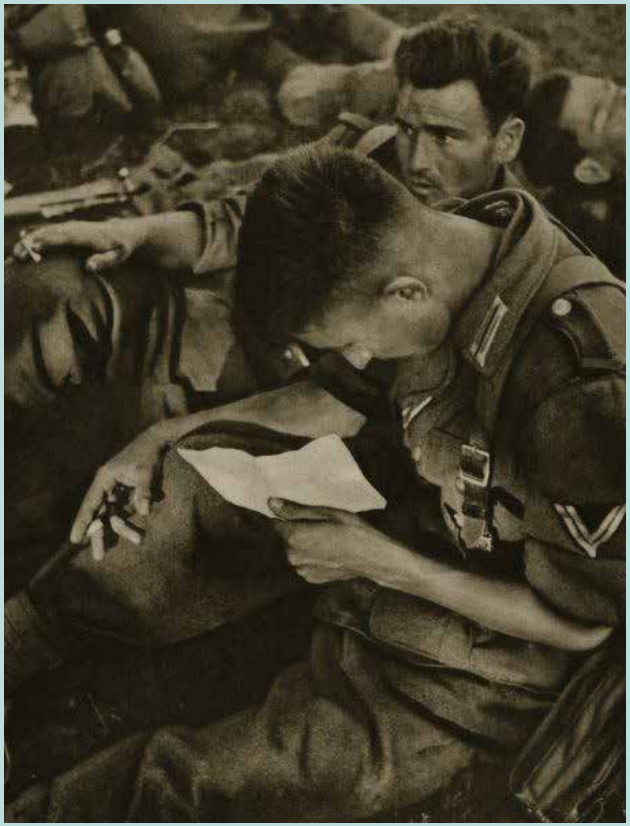

STAYING CONNECTED THROUGH FOOD

Sharing Recipes:

Families share favourite recipes with each other. For instance, a grandma might teach her cookie recipe over a video call.

MILITARY FAMILIES

Letters and Photos:

Soldiers often send letters, drawings, or photos home to share their lives with their families.

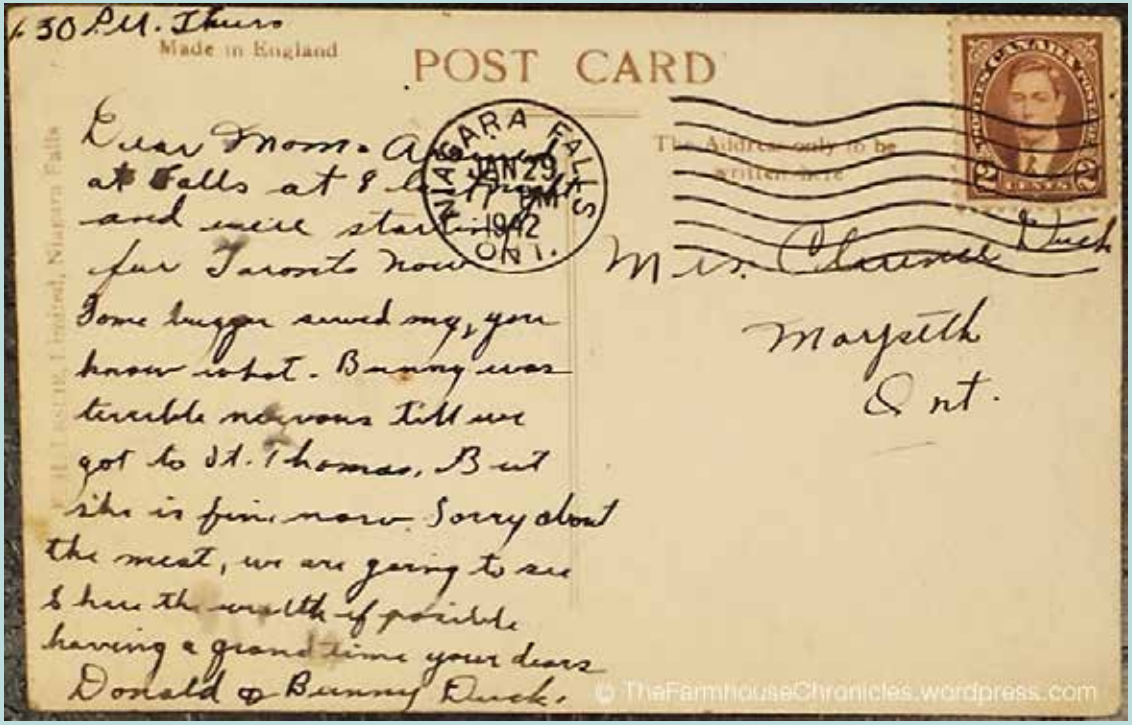

MILITARY FAMILIES

Recording Messages:

Military personnel sometimes record videos or audio messages for their children, like bedtime stories or birthday wishes.

PEN PALS IN THE FAMILY

Writing Letters to Grandparents:

Children write letters or make postcards for grandparents, keeping the tradition alive.

MAKING AND SHARING GIFTS

Handmade Gifts:

Families create and send handmade crafts, like friendship bracelets or photo collages.

TOGETHER OR APART
FAMILY IS NEVER TOO FAR!

