MYSTICLAND
IN SCHOOL

Incredible facts about the worlds of sports and media

CHAPTER 6

Meet the Lumière brothers

Auguste and Louis Lumière were born in France. Their father owned a photography business, and the brothers inherited his love for innovation in this field.

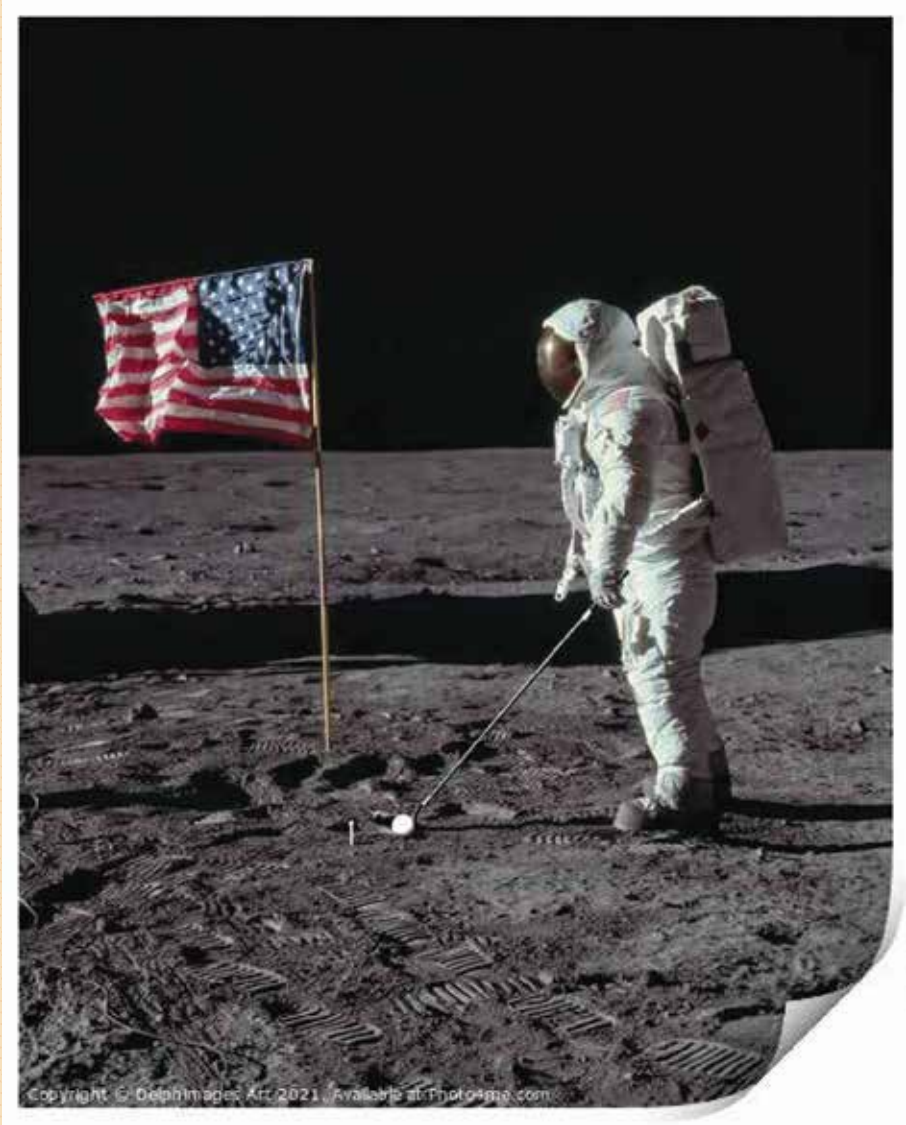

Workers Leaving the Lumière Factory- the world's first movie by the Lumière Brothers

The Lumière brothers held the world's first public film screening on 28 December 1895, in Paris. The event showcased 10 short films, including the famous "Workers Leaving the Lumière Factory". This photo is a still from this movie.

Watch Astronauts Play Golf on the Moon

Astronaut Alan Shepard made a golf club from a lunar excavation tool! He said that the ball travelled very far.

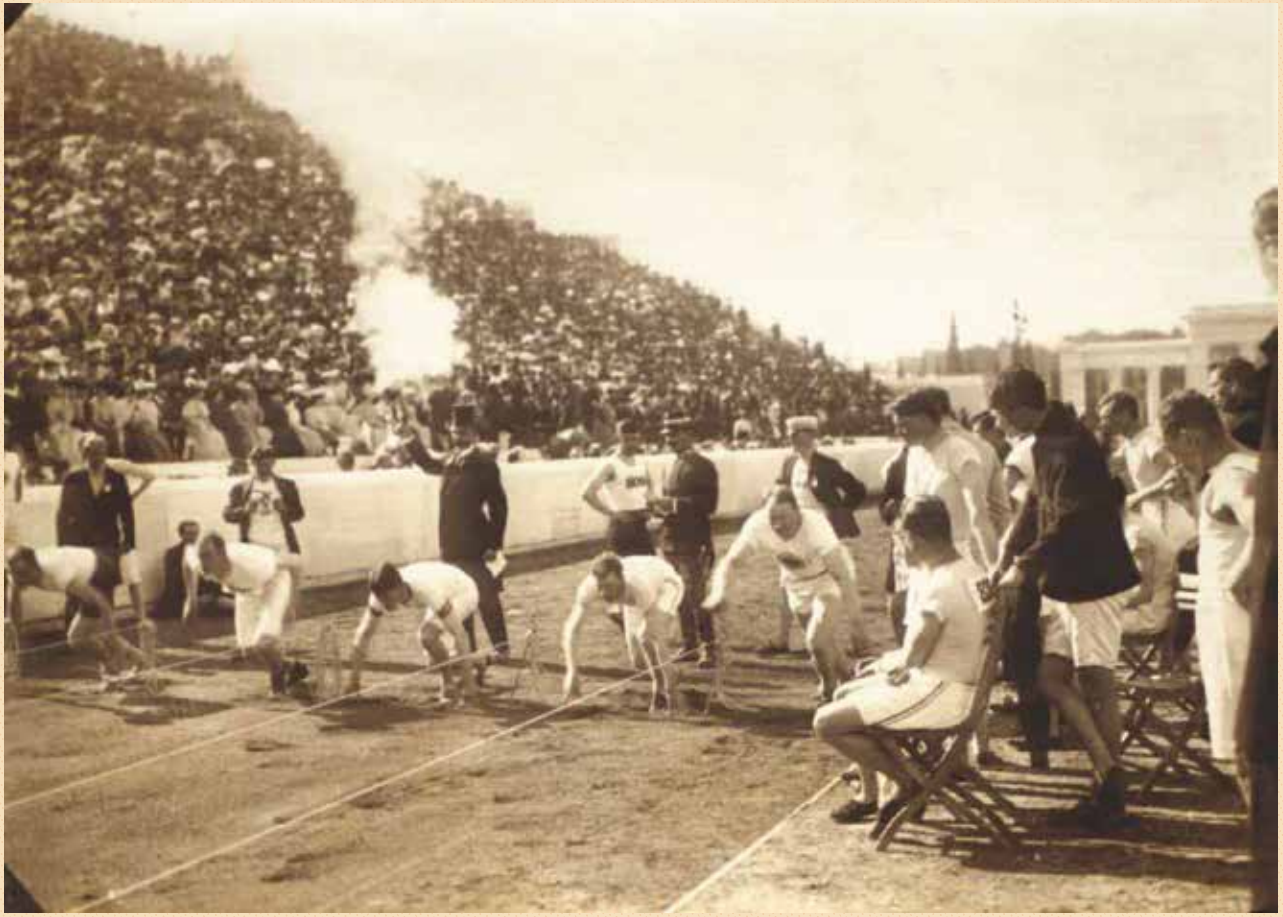

An astronaut shoots a ball through a hoop inside a spacecraft

Without gravity pulling the ball down, playing basketball in space is a unique challenge, as the ball floats and you have to gently push it instead of dribbling or shooting like you would on Earth.

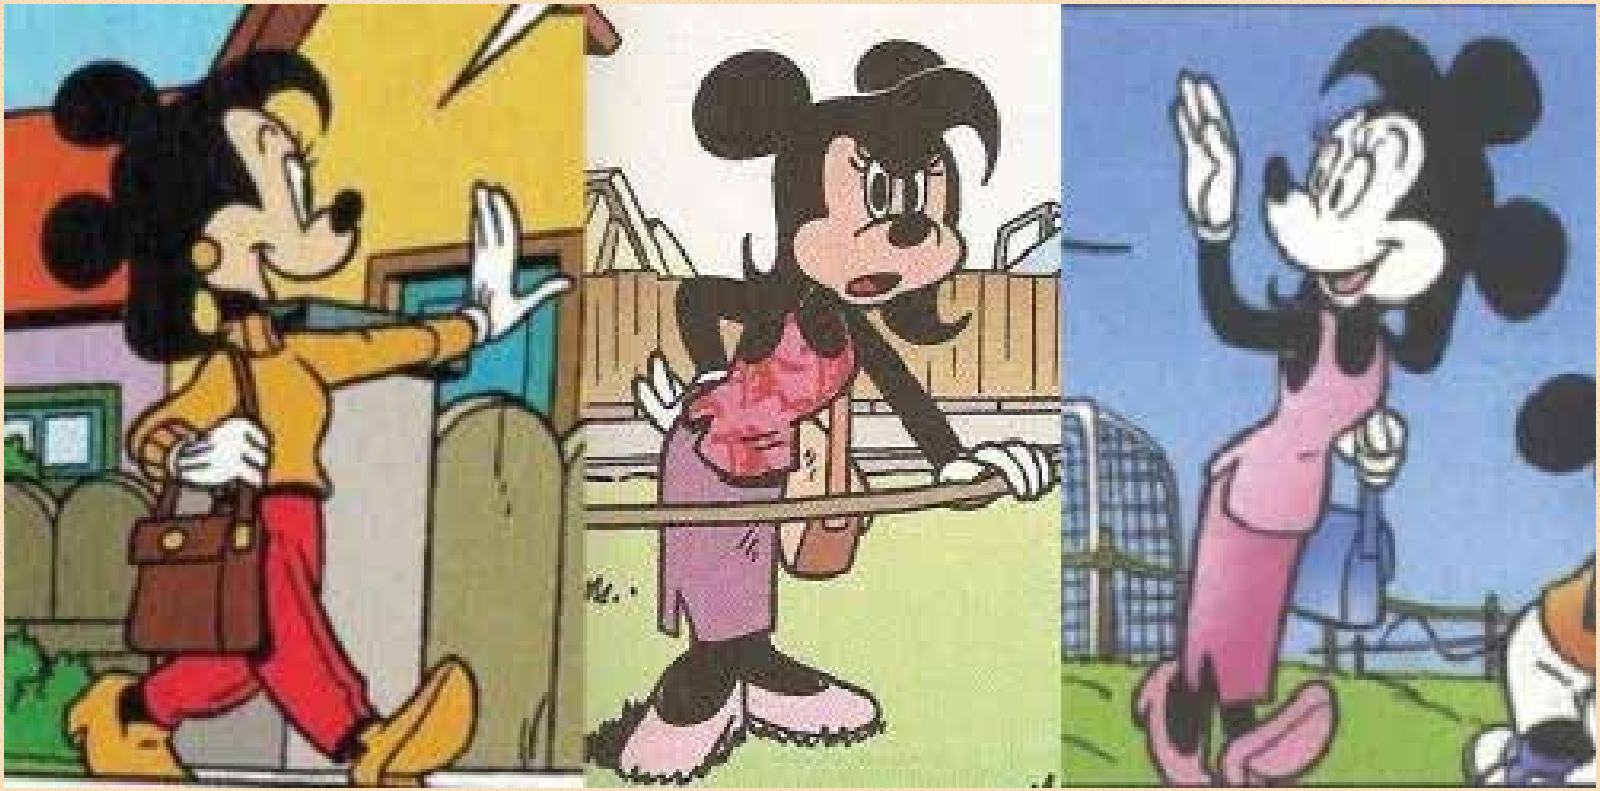

A glimpse of the First Olympic

The first modern Olympic Games were held in Athens, Greece. The event featured 241 athletes from 14 nations. India participated in the Olympics for the first time in 1900. It was held in Paris, France.

Meet Felicity Fieldmouse!

Felicity Fieldmouse's character appeared only in comic books, and maybe that is why she did not become as popular as Mickey Mouse. She was a journalist in the books.

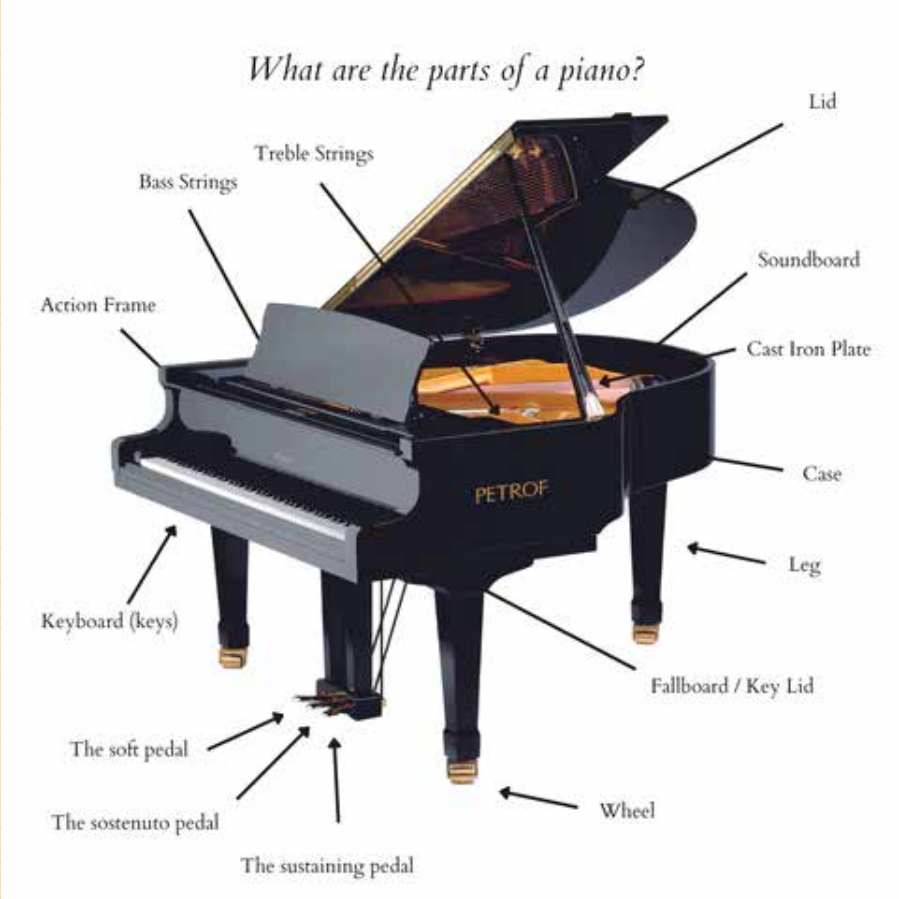

Have you watched this iconic show? It's the Simpsons!

The first episode of The Simpsons aired in 1989. The Simpsons live in a town called Springfield. It is in a state called Oregon in the United States of America!

WHAT IS A PIANO MADE UP OF?A

A standard piano has 88 keys– 52 white and 36 black. It has over 230 strings inside it! These strings are what make the sound when you press the keys. Each string is made of steel.